

It's Your Country!

A serious game about governance

Explore the intricacies of governance

It's Your Country! is a serious game about governance, decision-making and leadership. Set in a fictitious fragile country plagued by structural shortcomings, participants are challenged to take on the role of local, regional or national leaders. They are tasked to improve the state of the nation and the well-being of the population.

It's Your Country! enables participants to experience and reflect upon processes of (good) governance, political economy and accountability. This serious game is facilitated by two Pax Ludens experts and lasts 4 to 5 hours.

Learning objectives

It's Your Country! enables participants to:

- Gain unique insight into governance processes
- Improve their decision-making abilities
- Understand the intricacies of development
- Enhance leadership and teamwork skills
- Attain first-hand experience with information asymmetry

Further information

The Pax Ludens Foundation
Zeestraat 100, 2518 AD
The Hague, The Netherlands

13+

½ day

English

Introduction

Instructions, role profiles are given

Simulation

Participants seek to develop the fragile nation and improve the lives of their citizens

Debriefing

The facilitators present their analysis and lead several short group exercises

Participants

Our one-day conflict simulations cater to:

- Policy-makers working in fragile states
- Public professionals interested in topics such as decentralization, good governance & planning
- Students studying public administration, political economy & governance

w: paxludens.org/one-day_simulations
e: info@paxludens.org
t: +31(0)70 250 00 65

